

Academic session in St. Josephs School consists of two terms

ACADEMIC SESSION

- Summer Term from April to September
- Winter Term from October to March.

Some basic features:

Rather than following the system of streaming the students according to their performance, they are randomly divided into sections.

- ➤ The SJS follows a six day week consisting of 42 periods (period is of 40 minutes each in Winter.)
- The SJS follows a six day week consisting of 36 periods (period is of 40 minutes each in Summer.)
- The average strength of a class is around 30 students.
- > The teachers are assigned classrooms, while the recess break is on progress.
- The five minute break between the first and second bell refreshes their minds, stretches their limbs and gives them an opportunity to reflect on what has been taught or just chat with friends enroute.
- ➤ Our well-equipped school library subscribes to a variety of newspapers and magazines and also has computers with internet connections. Being informed on current affairs is a vital link to the outside world. Every student is provided with a daily newspaper of his choice to ensure that that link is sustained.

- The Archives provide a rich insight into the school's past, are meticulously maintained and serve as a treasure trove of information for the historically-inclined.
- ➤ School timing is divided into 7 periods, lunch break is provided between 4th and 5th of these periods. One mini
- recess break is allotted at the prefix of the lunch break.
- > For Mini recess break bell chimes after the completion of two consecutive periods.
- ➤ Off bell chimes at the end of the successful completion of three consecutive periods after the tiffin break (in Winter), on the contrary, it is done at the end of the completion of two consecutive periods after the tiffin break in summer.
- School starts at 8.00 am and gets over at 1 pm. Morning 7.45 am to 8 am is Zero Period and provided to home room teachers as they play vital role in nurturing the life of students. [in Winter]
- > School starts at 6.00 am and gets over at 11.30 am. Morning 5.45 am to 6 am is Zero Period and provided to home room teachers as they play vital role in nurturing the life of students [in Summer]
